ALL CHARITY FESTIVAL

Join Us

All Charity Festival brings charitable/non-profit organizations and artists together in a public park to show case their work in public, network with other organizations, educate and celebrate supporting artists and speakers who have taken humanitarian work close to their hearts. We increase recognition for charitable/non-profit organizations and nurture a winning network while forming a mutual, enduring and valuable relationship with the public.

Our goal is to allow the public to engage in a one-on-one conversation with charitable/non-profit organizations. Having a direct contact will form a greater awareness and understanding about organizations' mission and purpose.

Connect

We promote harmonious environment for charitable organizations to network with each other and engage with the public. We aim to educate the public of the work that organizations do, answer questions and recruit supporters and volunteers to rally behind causes that matter to them. This is the time for organizations to form relationships, recruit volunteers that will stick with them in a long term.

CREATE AWARENESS

All Charity Festival main purposes:

Charitable/nonprofit organizations get to the podium to tell the public about their organization and how their organization is making a difference.

We strive to give charitable organizations the platform to:

- ◆ Create awareness about their causes.
- ◆ Network with other like minded charitable organizations.
- ◆ Provide the audience with the opportunity to learn of the resources that are accessible to them.
- ◆ Educate the public about the existence of different charities that may help in times of need.
- ◆ Recruit volunteers and supporters who will continue to rally behind their causes.
- ◆ Give your organizations the recognition that it deserves.

MIXIMIZE: SALE/SILENT AUCTION

Q. Is this a fundraising venue?

This is not a fundraising venue, however, we feel that this is a great opportunity for your organization to have a financial gain through sale or salient auction.

Q. Where does the money from the sale or the silent auction go?

100% of the cash that you generate from your sale/silent auction goes to your organization. Our volunteers are not responsible to sale or monitor your goods. Your organization takes full responsibility.

Q. How does fair trade organizations get to benefit?

Organizations working in fair trade can bring their goods at the festival and 100% of the money generate from their sales go to their organizations.

WHY PARTICIPATE

This festival is specifically dedicated to charitable/non-profit organizations. It is an opportunity for organizations to form the synergy of support within the charitable sector and uplift the community spirit.

We provide harmonious space for organizations to interact, exchange ideas and get to interact cultural by celebrating with various community groups. It is also a great moment for the people in our community to learn of the resources that are available and accessible in times of dire need.
